“Trick or Treat” isn’t just for kids anymore.

In time for Halloween, Bristol Brewing plans to have their Venetucci Pumpkin Ale released around October 19th. Over the six decades, Nick and Bambi Venetucci literally gave away millions of pumpkins to school children all across the Springs. Just before he passed away, Nick made plans to donate the farm to the Pikes Peak Community Foundation, that it might be preserved forever as a rich community resource. In their honor, Bristol plans to contribute 100% of the profits from this beer to support the farm. So enjoy this subtly spiced malty treat.

Cycles Gladiator wines are a celebration of the freedom and happiness that pervaded the late 19th century following the invention of the bicycle. The famed artwork that once beautifully showcased the stylish 'Cycles Gladiator' now graces the bottles of our classic wines from California's Central Coast. The mythological image, the 'winged bicycle', captures the grace, beauty, and uniqueness of our hillside vineyards. Visit <http://www.cyclesgladiator.com/cycles/index.jsp> additional info.

Captain Morgan

Made with molasses, water, mash and yeast, Captain Morgan Original Spiced is distilled in a continuous still. Once distilled, the clear spirit is aged in oak barrels for up to a year, adding a golden color and lots of character to the rum before the flavors and spices are added. The brand's characteristic taste is achieved through a unique and proprietary recipe, which is blended into the rum mixture at the final stages of production, making full use of exotic island spices indigenous to the Caribbean Islands. This secret blend of exotic island spices has a truly distinct and delicious flavor which simply has to be experienced first hand.

- Captain Henry Morgan (1635-1688), the Welsh-born buccaneer from 17th century was the inspiration for the brand name. He eventually became Lt. Governor of Jamaica and received his knighthood from King Charles 1.
- Captain Morgan Original Spiced was created for the perfect rum and cola taste combination.
- Mix Captain Morgan's Parrot Bay with pineapple juice. It's a one-step pina colada. Add a splash of cranberry juice for a new twist on the classic sea breeze.
