“We’ll Leave the Cooler on for You.” - The SLO Staff

Sterling Vineyards wines have a signature style that is easy to recognize and to enjoy. When you taste a Sterling wine from Reserve to Sterling Vintner’s Collection, you will be drinking an authentic expression of the grape, the land where it is grown and the year in which it was grown.

Sterling Vintner’s Collection wines are made with the same focus on varietal-fruit flavor; these wines highlight the Central Coast signature.

All Sterling Vintner’s 750ml are currently 20% off with Family Card.

Relax, unwind, and uncork a flavor bomb. When it comes to enjoying the big, rich fruit that’s Blackstone’s signature, no occasion is too small.

Blackstone Winery was founded in 1990 with the goal of producing approachable, full-bodied, well-balanced wines.

The bestseller, Blackstone Merlot perfectly demonstrates the “Blackstone style”—rich fruit aromas, elegance, supple oak characters and soft tannins. This wine is sure to be a crowd-pleaser. The wine is filled with lifted dark cherry and berry aromas with a touch of spicy clove. The palate is supple and well integrated with flavors of cherry and spice. The wine has a soft, lingering finish...

All Blackstone 750ml are 20% off with Family Card.

How the whiskey made friends with the cream

Coming from an island with such a rich tradition of distilling and dairy farming, it's no wonder that R&A Bailey were inspired to discover a 100% natural process of blending the whiskey with the cream. The whiskey and the cream have a unique relationship, which means the cream is preserved by the whiskey alone.

The cream used in Baileys comes from Avonmore Waterford Plc. This is a co-operative dairy located about 70 miles outside of Dublin. More than 4 million liters of Irish cream a year is used in the production of Baileys, this amounts to 4.3% of Ireland's total milk production. Baileys accounts for more than 55% of all spirits exported from Ireland.

Bailey's Comet Layered Drink

This is one of the coolest recipes I've ever seen. Not only is it delicious, but it makes a sparkling fireworks.

1/2 oz Bailey's
1/2 oz Goldschlager
1 splash Bacardi 151 Rum
cinnamon

Get a solid glass - you're going to be setting this on fire. Put it on a plate to catch the cinnamon. Now add in the Bailey's first. With a spoon, gently layer the Goldschlager on top of this. Then put a very slight layer of 151 Rum on the very top. This is quite flammable and will be the part that flames.

Put a little rum into a spoon and with a match carefully light this on fire. Then gently "pour" the flaming rum into the glass. Now your glass is on fire. But it gets even better.

Now get a container of cinnamon and sprinkle it down on the glass. The cinnamon will sparkle as it hits the flames.

Tangerine Mashed Sweet Potatoes

A healthy and delicious holiday side dish, mashed sweet potatoes with a slight hint of orange, cinnamon and ginger.

Ingredients:

4 pounds sweet potatoes
1 stick butter, at room temperature
1/3 cup orange liqueur
Grated zest of 2 oranges
1/2 cup tangerine juice
1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 tsp ground cinnamon 1 tsp ground ginger

Scrub potatoes and place in a large saucepan, add water to cover. Bring to boiling over medium heat, lower heat. Simmer 1/2 hour or until just tender, drain. Peel when cooled. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Butter a 6 cup baking casserole dish. Place potatoes in large bowl, mash with potato masher. Add butter, orange liqueur, tangerine zest and juice, brown sugar, cinnamon and ginger. Beat until smooth with an electric beater. Spoon into baking dish. Bake 1/2 hour until top is golden.

Notes: For an elegant presentation, pipe sweet potato mixture onto a greased baking sheet with a large pastry bag fitted with a large star tip. When baked, garnish with zest.

Number of servings: 8
